COMMUNITY GUIDE & MEETING UPDATE

The Columbia Chamber of Commerce has begun work on the new 2004 Community Guide, which will be published and distributed in 2004. Now is your opportunity to be apart of this guide. Your business can be highlighted and advertised in this booklet that is distributed to all business and residences located in the 44028 zip code. This includes all of Columbia Township and parts of Eaton Township. Don't miss out on this opportunity to let other local business and the community know that you are a viable business within our area. Businesses that are members of the chamber and advertise in this local community guide are also featured on the Chamber website. www.columbiastation.com.

The Columbia Chamber of Commerce will be holding it's quarterly meeting on October 8, 2003 at the Columbia Townhall located at 25496 Royalton Road, Columbia Station, Ohio. Social hour will begin at 7:30p.m, the regular meeting will commence at 8:00p.m. The meeting will focus on development and publication of the new 2004 Community Guide. We encourage any business, organization and individual that is interested in participating in the development of this booklet to attend this meeting. Your input will be greatly appreciated. If you are interested in advertising in this booklet, please contact Spectrum Publications at 330-682-2055 or visit their website www.spectrumpubs.com. Advertiser in the community guide will receive membership to the Columbia Chamber of Commerce. If you want to make sure your business or personal listing is added or correct please send information to Columbia Chamber of Commerce, POB 428, Columbia Station, Ohio 44028

The Chamber uses funds from this campaign to support local groups, our website and help to fund scholarships for local teens. Our organizations, believes it is important to re-distribute funds back to our local community. Your business or organization can be apart of this effort by joining our organization. Currently the Chamber is one of the proud supporters of the tile mural that is being designed for the New Columbia Library.

The Chamber offers many benefits to local businesses, through our membership to NOACC. North Ohio Association of Chamber of Commerce. This membership gives all our members the opportunity to help reduce business cost. Members can potentially save on workmen's compensation, health insurance, credit card processing fees and numerous other services available at discounted cost to our members. Come to the Columbia Chamber of Commerce meeting on October 8, 2003 or our website www.columbiastation.com or the NOACC website www.noacc.org for more details on how your business can SAVE $$ for your company.
