

2010 Columbia Citizen of the Year

The Acme Grange began the Citizen of the Year program in 1977. In 1990 the Columbia Homecoming Committee took over the award as the Grange ended its long history in Columbia. The Columbia Homecoming Committee and the Columbia Historical Society are now continuing this tradition. The Columbia Citizen of the Year award is to recognize a current resident of Columbia for his or her service to Columbia as part of an organization and / or as an individual that has contributed time, energy and/or resources to the community.

Individuals or organizations are encouraged to nominate a person for this award to be given during the Homecoming Festival.

Nominations must be received by June 4, 2010.

Send to – Columbia Historical Society, P.O. Box 983, Columbia Station, Ohio, 44028. or drop off at the Columbia Library or Columbia Town Hall.

Thank You,

The Columbia Historical Society, Inc.

Name of Nominee: _____

Please describe the service to/for Columbia within the last year or two on the back of the paper or on a separate sheet.

Have there been contributions to our community in the past that should also be recognized?
Please include these with your other comments.

Please give a short Biography: Single ___ or Married ___ Spouse _____

Children _____

Active in what organizations _____

Years lived in Columbia _____ Please add additional information you consider pertinent.

Organization / Person nominating: please print _____

Signed: _____ Date: _____

Contact phone number: _____ Email _____